No Better Time to Break the Habit

Over 400,000 people in the U.S. die from the effects of smoking each year. According to military health care officials nearly one of every three active-duty service members smoke. The American Cancer Society says nine out of 10 smokers would like to quit and there's no better time to do it than during the Great American Smokeout Nov. 16. Several activities are planned involving the health clinic, dental clinic and Girl Scouts.

One activity involves Patch High School teens who are becoming teen educators with the Teens Against Tobacco Use program. This is an American Lung Association tobacco awareness program taught by teens to youth. These Volunteer Service Learning students will make anti-smoking presentations Nov. 16 to Panzer Elementary students in grades four, five and six and to Patch Elementary students in grade five.

For info on the Great American Smokeout events call the Stuttgart community health nurse, 430-8209/civ. 0711-680-8209, or visit the Web page at (www2.cancer.org/gas/index.cfm).
